

BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH.

VOLUME 6, NO. 43.

BRAINERD, MINN., TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1906.

PRICE TWO CENTS

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS. SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian had learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women. Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines, put up for sale through druggists for woman's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women. "Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

ADDRESS TO PEOPLE

ISSUED BY THE FIRST RUSSIAN
PARLIAMENT AT A MEET-ING IN FINLAND.

HITS THE GOVERNMENT HARD

APPEAL TO PEOPLE STRIKES AD-MINISTRATION IN ITS MOST VULNERABLE POINT.

Viborg, Finland, July 24.—The curtain has fallen on the final act of the drama of Russia's first parliament. Under the spur of the threat of Governor Rechanberg to use military force to end the session and with troops already converging on the Hotel Belevide, where the meeting was held, 186 members of the lower house hurriedly adopted and signed an address to the people, which is thoroughly revolutionary in its nature; elected a perpetual executive committee headed by Prince Paul Dolgouroukoff, vice president of the house, to carry on the work of liberation and adjourned amidst characteristic Russian embracing and kissing.

A few members, including President Mourouitseff, Ivan Petrunkevitch and Count Heyden, returned to St. Petersburg by evening train. The Constitutional Democratic cohorts intend to go to St. Petersburg in a body in the morning, but many of the radicals, fearing arrest at the capital, will return by roundabout routes.

Similar to Workmen's Manifesto.

The address, which bears a remarkable similarity to the manifesto framed by the council of workmen last November that landed its authors and the editors of eight St. Petersburg newspapers in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, strikes the government in its most vulnerable point, by declaring that the administration is responsible for the delay in the settlement of the agrarian question and by proclaiming a cessation of payment of taxes and of military service and a repudiation of future loans.

The address is as follows:
"To the People, From Their Popular Representatives:

"Citizens of All Russia—Parliament has been dissolved by ukase of July 21. You elected us as your representatives and instructed us to fight for our country and freedom. In execution of your instructions and our duty we drew up laws in order to ensure freedom to the people. We demanded the removal of irresponsible ministers who were infringing the laws with impunity and oppressing freedom. First of all, however, we wanted to bring out a law respecting the distribution of land to working peasants and involving the assignment to this end of crown appanages, monasteries and lands belonging to the clergy, and compulsory expropriation of private estates. The government held such a law to be inadmissible and on parliament more urgently putting forward its resolution regarding compulsory expropriation, parliament was dissolved. The government promises to convoke a new parliament, seven months hence.

On the Brink of Ruin.

"Russia must remain without popular representation for seven whole months at a time when the people are standing on the brink of ruin, and commerce and industry are undermined, when the whole country is seething with unrest and when the ministry has definitely shown its incapacity to do justice to public needs. For seven months the government will act arbitrarily and will fight against the popular movement in order to obtain a pliable, subservient parliament. Should it succeed, however, in completely suppressing the popular movement the government will convoke no parliament at all.

"Citizens, stand up for your trampled on rights, for popular representation and for a complete parliament. Russia must not remain a day without popular representation. You possess the means of acquiring it. The government has, without the assent of the popular representatives, no right to collect taxes from the people, nor to summon the people to military service. Therefore you are now the government. The dissolved parliament was justified in giving neither money nor soldiers.

"Should the government, however, contract loans in order to procure funds, such loans will be invalid without the consent of the popular representatives. The Russian people will never acknowledge them and will not be called on to pay them. Accordingly until a popular representative parliament is summoned do not give a kopeck to the throne or a soldier to the army. Be steadfast in your refusal. No power can resist the united, inflexible will of the people.

"Citizens, in this obligatory and unavoidable struggle, your representatives will be with you."

MAY BE LODGED IN JAIL.

Members of Parliament Likely to Be Imprisoned.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—The great news of the day is the adoption of an address to the people by the deputies to parliament who assembled at Viborg, the language of which, with its revolutionary demands that the people cease to furnish money and troops to the government and repudiate further loans, affords pretext enough for the government to lodge its authors in the fortress if it feels strong enough. A rumor is in circulation that this course had been decided upon.

A large crowd gathered at the Finland station at night, where the deputies were expected to arrive but only a few appeared and these were not molested and neither was there a popular demonstration. Among the arrivals were President Mourouitseff and Ivan Petrunkevitch. The former came on a local train entirely unattended. He was plainly downcast and responded to the salutation of the Associated Press correspondent by the mere raising of his hat and hurried on to escape an interview. M. Petrunkevitch, filled with the revolutionary spirit, claimed for the Constitutional Democrats the credit for the text of the appeal.

Address Will Be Suppressed

Copies of the appeal to the people are in the hands of all St. Petersburg newspapers but it will scarcely be printed for the reason that a detachment of police is posted at the door of every newspaper printing office in the city with orders not to permit any papers to leave the building until authorized by the censor. The authorities hope by equally vigorous measures to prevent the publication of the appeal in other cities and in the meantime to nullify the fears of the people as to the possible effect of the appeal.

Police are posted at the lodgings of M. Sedelnikoff and M. Ilyn, awaiting the return of these revolutionary delegates, who already have involved themselves by seditious acts since the dissolution of parliament.

The theaters and other places of amusement were almost empty at night, the public fearing conflict between crowds and military and police. Several encounters took place in various parts of the city, but they were all of a petty character.

A few days may witness the constitution of a "provisional government," composed of an enlarged council of ministers, with the inclusion of conservative members of the dispersed lower house of parliament, councillors of the empire and men influential in the life of the empire, who can be induced to accept ministries without portfolios and contribute their authority and advice to hard pressed government. This is the solution to which Premier Stolypin and the members of his cabinet who realize the enormous nature of the task of tiding over the country during the tempestuous era that is now dawning are turning and it was the subject of deliberation at two meetings of the cabinet.

Ministers Favor the Plan.

The Associated Press is informed that a majority of the ministers have become converts to the idea and that its adoption depends on the success of M. Stolypin in inducing men like Former Finance Minister Shipoff, Count Heyden, Former Commerce Minister Timiriaseff and M. Guchkoff to compromise their future by allying themselves with such a "King's council." Shipoff and Guchkoff already have been approached.

The Associated Press is also informed that a ukase will soon be issued fixing the date of elections for parliament for the first week in December, Russian style, and that as an additional guarantee that the principle of popular representation will not be abandoned, another edict will be issued proroguing the council of the empire until the convocation of the new parliament without, as was prophesied Sunday night, calling new elections for elective members.

Meanwhile the masses of the Russian people, slow of thought and action, have not yet roused themselves to the gigantic upheaval that is sure to follow the dissolution of their parliament.

Minor disorders are reported from half a dozen cities. An incipient anti-Jewish outbreak at Odessa has been checked by the police. A sympathetic strike has been begun at the Khar-kov railroad shops, which may inaugurate a general tie-up of communications, but St. Petersburg, Moscow and most of the great centers are still calm on the surface, though boiling and seething beneath.

Iowa Banker Arrested.

Sioux City, Ia., July 24.—E. E. Snyder, formerly a banker of Olin, Ia., was arrested here on an indictment charging fraudulent banking and will be taken to Jones county for trial. His bank made an assignment two years ago and creditors were paid 20 cents on the dollar.

PLUNGE INTO A LAKE

ENGINE AND TWO CARS OF A PAS-SENGER TRAIN SUBMERGED
IN DEEP WATER.

SEVERAL PERSONS DROWNED

NINE MEN IN THE SMOKING CAR
AND THE CREW OF THE EN-GINE MEET DEATH.

Spokane, Wash., July 24.—The engine, express and smoking car of the Great Northern fast train, westbound, are submerged in the deep waters of Diamond lake, 6½ and a half miles east of Camden, about twenty miles from Spokane. Nine men who went down in the smoking car and the engine crew were drowned in the deep water. As the train came through portal of a tunnel the rails spread and the engine plunged down a fifty-foot embankment into the lake, followed by the express car and the smoker. The other cars remained on the track. The couplings were unbroken.

A wrecking car sent out from Spokane has just returned with the dead and injured.

The wreck caught fire, but the flames were extinguished.

One unknown man in the day coach was probably fatally injured by the explosion of the gas tank.

Diamond lake, although only a small body of water about half a mile long, is known to be 300 feet deep in places and it is thought the engine lies in 120 feet of water.

IN FIGHT WITH PULAJANES.

One Lieutenant, Twelve Privates and a Civilian Scout Killed.

Manila, July 24.—A detachment of constabulary, Lieutenant Williams commanding, encountered a band of 600 Pulajanes near Burauen, on the island of Leyte. Lieutenant Worswick, twelve privates and Civilian Scout McBride were killed.

The constabulary were driven back. The Pulajanes secured fourteen rifles and two revolvers. The bodies of Worswick, McBride and ten privates were recovered. Reinforcements of constabulary have been sent from the nearest station.

Major Neville, commanding the military, has ordered a company of regular infantry to be hurried to the scene. Major Neville reports that there are from 400 to 1,000 Pulajanes in the field.

FOUR MINERS KILLED.

Five Others Injured by an Explosion of Dynamite.

Mount Union, Pa., July 24.—Four men were killed and five others were injured in an explosion in a powder and dynamite house belonging to Jesse O. McClain, near Robertsdale, Huntingdon county.

The magazine was situated about half way between Robertsdale and Woodhull and from it the miners daily obtained explosives for use in the mines. A number of the miners went into the powder house and a moment later the whole place was blown to pieces. The cause of the explosion is unknown, but it is supposed that one of the men was smoking.

FOR KILLING ATTORNEY MOODY.

Two Colored Cavalrymen Will Be Arrested.

Shoshone, Wyo., July 24.—Two colored cavalrymen from Fort Washakie will be arrested charged with the murder of City Attorney Moody and the shooting of Binder Anderson here a few days ago. The authorities have learned that two soldiers who had trouble with Night Watchman McCoy were looking for McCoy on the night of the murder and it is generally believed that they killed Moody by mistake.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS KILLED.

Mutinuous Artillerymen Fire Upon a Club at Brest Litovsk.

Warsaw, July 24.—A band of mutinuous artillerymen from the fortress at Brest Litovsk, 130 miles south of Grodno, fired on the officers' club, where there were many officers gathered. The officers exchanged shots with the mutineers and two of the former were killed. The mutineers finally were surrounded by infantrymen and arrested.

The Socialists here have issued proclamations advocating refusal to pay taxes, the withholding of recruits and revolution.

THE HARTJE DIVORCE TRIAL.

Counsel for the Defendant Close Their Case in Chief.

Pittsburg, July 24.—The testimony in rebuttal was begun in the Hartje divorce case when the sessions of the court were resumed here. Previous to the introduction of this testimony, however, Mrs. Hartje's counsel closed their case in chief. Helen Scott and the letters she is alleged to have written to "Tom" Madine, the coachman, co-respondent, were brought forward as an issue. Fragments of the letters were declared by Attorney Ed Hartje, brother of the millionaire libellant, to have been taken from the sweepings in Madine's room in the Hartje stable. These letters purport to show that Miss Scott gave "Tom" memoranda of the facts to which he should testify at the trial.

Testimony concerning these letters was only gotten in after a bitter fight by Attorney Freeman of counsel for Mrs. Hartje, who claimed this was not properly a part of the rebuttal, but belonged to the libellant's case in chief. The court said this was true, but admitted the letters, saying, however, the letters would have little weight unless they were accounted for properly.

Expert Percifer Fraser was on the stand most of the day and testified that the writer of the "Dear Susie" letter, exhibit No. 6, was the same as that of the admitted "standards."

Attorney Ed Hartje exhibited a number of fragments which belonged to the same letter from which the well known exhibit, No. 35, was made. This had been folded in two parts, he explained. He said he had had this and the "Dear Susie" letter in his possession since last fall.

In order to clear away all doubts regarding the manner in which the famous "40 letters" were obtained, the prosecution has subpoenaed as witnesses Police Inspector Robert Gray, Sergeant Michael Hanley and Special Officer Patrick Golden. Hanley was on duty when Madine reported the robbery of his trunk on June 9. Golden is the officer who made the investigation.

BRITISH PREMIER'S ADDRESS.

Conservative London Papers Consider It Indiscreet.

London, July 24.—All the newspapers comment on Premier Campbell-Bannerman's address before the inter-parliamentary union, and especially his phrase "The Russian parliament is dead! Long live the Russian parliament." The most conservative journals consider this latter undiplomatic and indiscreet, while others diplomatically correct the interpretation to suit the emperor of Russia, while the liberal organs characterize it as a blend of high courage and deep caution, nothing over which diplomacy can stumble.

Henry Norman, in the Daily Chronicle, says that the phrase, considering by whom it was said and when and where, will echo round the world.

AT LEAST EIGHT DEAD

AND TWICE THAT NUMBER MAY HAVE PERISHED IN COLLAPSE OF BUILDING.

South Framingham, Mass., July 24.—At least eight and perhaps twice that number of masons, plumbers and Italian laborers were crushed in the sudden collapse of a building in process of construction in Main street here. Ten others were dragged or dug out of the wreck, some seriously injured. At a late hour at night ten men were missing and a large force of laborers was at work on the ruins, searching for the dead.

Two walls of the partially constructed three-story brick and cement Amnden building, a portion of which was fitted up for use as a postoffice, collapsed. The workmen were carried down in the wreck. Ten men were rescued, all badly injured. Eight bodies have been recovered. The known dead are:

Patrick Pendergast, mason; unidentified laborer, Remo Marschl, mason tender; James Walsh, mason; Charles G. Blight, foreman; Fred Harvey, mason; Joseph Drought, laborer; Frank Driscoll, mason.

When the accident happened there were about thirty or forty men at work in the building.

Two or three cracks were heard and then the north wall and about half the front wall collapsed.

SCOW SINKS DURING A STORM.

Over a Score of Lives Endangered but No Fatality Occurs.

Iron Mountain, Mich., July 24.—Thirty-five persons, men, women and children, went down in twelve feet of water with a scow at Spread Eagle lake during a storm. Launches and steamers were hurried to the rescue and not a fatality resulted, although several were taken unconscious from the hull. The persons on the scow were members of a Swedish picnic party.

RUN DOWN ON A TRESTLE.

South Dakota Woman and Her Two Children Killed.

Watertown, S. D., July 24.—Mrs. Gus Berndt and her two daughters, Ella and Ida, aged seven and nine years, were run down on a trestle by a Rock Island train near White and killed.

North Dakota State Fair.

Fargo, N. D., July 24.—The North Dakota state fair in Fargo was auspiciously opened Monday with weather that could not have been better had it been made to order. The fair was formally opened in the afternoon, Governor E. Y. Sarles making the opening speech, to which a response was made by W. A. Scott, president of the fair.

THAT Judge McClenahan will be re-nominated without opposition seems now to be a settled fact. THE information that the revenue from an oil well found on his land would net him a royalty of $100 a day was too much for a farmer of Mattoon, Ill., his mind became unbalanced and he is now an inmate of an asylum. The farmer had toiled hard all his life on a farm of 150 acres of what was considered poor land and when he was informed of his good fortune he went suddenly insane.

SPEAKING of the congressional matter the Cass Lake Times says: Congressman C. B. Buckman was in Cass Lake between trains this week. The congressman has a host of loyal friends here with whom he discussed to some extent the work of the last congress. Incidentally, Mr. Buckman added that he had absolutely no fears relative to the outcome of the coming election, and judging from the Minneapolis Journal, the opposition to Congressman Buckman is rapidly fading away. So far as Cass Lake voters are concerned they are satisfied that he has been very attentive to their needs, and his majority here will be larger than before. There is practically no opposition here to his re-nomination to succeed himself.

HAIL STORM

NEAR MOTLEY.

Strip of Country North of Motley Visited by Destructive Storm Last Saturday Night.

CROPS WERE TOTALLY RUINED

At Least 600 acres of Crops Reported to have been Totally Destroyed by Storm.

A strip of country about three miles wide and running across the towns of Meadow Brook and Byron was visited with a fierce hail storm Saturday night. There was all told about 600 acres of the best farming land in Cass county stripped of its crops in a few short minutes. Among those whose crops were destroyed were Mr. Hoveland, J. O. Jessmy, Wagner the ranch, C. C. Kelly, Harry Hansen, A. K. Hansen, George Keenan, Mr. Svartengreen, Sheppard Brothers, E. K. Dumm, Andrew Ellis, Edd Allie, Daniel Tierce and Mr. Trow. There were at least 600 acres in crop owned by these gentlemen and perhaps others, and not an acre of it will be worth harvesting, according to the reports brought to this city by R. L. Poet, of Motley, the storm having passed about three miles north of that place. While the hail stones were none of them larger than hens' eggs they were so thick that they could be picked up in the sunshine at noon the next day. It is hard to estimate the damage in dollars and cents, but it will run well into the thousands.

MOUNTED POLICE HEROES

Official Report Tells of Thrilling Feats in the Northwest.

The blue book recently issued by the Canadian government on the Northwest mounted police contains many stirring narratives, told in brief and official style, says a special dispatch from Winnipeg to the New York Times. It furnishes proof that crime within the jurisdiction of the police will be dealt with, no matter how remote the district or how dangerous the journey.

Inspector Genereux of Prince Albert traveled 1,750 miles by canoe and dog train to inquire into an alleged murder case.

Corporal Mapley left Dawson City by dog train for Fort McPherson in the dead of winter and went by an unknown route across mountain ranges for a distance of over 500 miles to make another inquiry.

Inspector McGinnis and Sergeant Egan penetrated 200 miles into the wilds of Keewatin, where the Indians say the foot of white man never before trod, and arrested a murderer there for a crime committed more than a year previously.

Constable Pedley traveled from Fort Chipewyan to Fort Saskatchewan in the depth of winter with a raving lunatic strapped to a dog sled, and the hardship and anxiety of the journey made him insane.

Constable Conradi galloped from safety to the help of a settler and his family, in deadly peril from a tremendous prairie fire, and fought it, singed and almost suffocated, until the greater part of his clothing was burned off him.

Behind these and brief statements of official facts loom up the outlines of stories of endurance and unostentatious heroism. At the time the report was issued the force consisted of 54 officers, 650 noncommissioned men and 109 interpreters, guides and artisans, making a total force of 813. In the year the police brought 4,627 offenders before the courts, and of these only 822 were dismissed. These cases cover a great variety of crime, from murder to cattle stealing.

Arrangements have been made with the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan for continuing the force, each province paying $75,000 yearly toward its maintenance.

Pigs in China.

A Peking correspondent says: "It is no uncommon sight to see twelve or thirteen enormous fat pigs, with their legs tied, huddled close together having a ride in a Chinese cart with some sort of light cargo on top of them and a man sitting on the cargo. The pigs are silent, and consequently one would think they should not be objects for the action of the Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The fact is that the animals are too fat and lazy to make any noise until disturbed at their journey's end, when bagpipes are as Italian opera to the terrific squealing heard."

Son Kills His Father.

Trenton, Mo., July 24.—Patrick Woods, aged twenty-seven, a wagon maker at Alpha, was killed by his son Christopher. The old man was intoxicated and going to the home of his son, threatened the inmates with a handaxe. The son seized a club and beat his father to death.

HISTORY OF THE DISASTER

W. W. Hartley Writes at Length
Of the Disaster that Befel
The Western City

THE CONDITIONS IN DETAIL

Most Complete Account of what Occurred and Description of Wreck and Fire

I passed through many of the principal streets before the fire reached them and the wreckage was enormous everywhere. Men, women and children ran hither and thither, dragging personal effects to places of supposed safety to find them again in danger in an hour. One man was seen dragging three trunks tied together in tandem and wearing three hats and two coats; another walked behind with a couple of heavy trunks, one on top of the other, being dragged along the pavement by a husky laboring man he had employed to aid him. All kinds of prices were asked and paid without question, for assistance—$20 and $50 were little thought of for a dray or an able bodied man, who would carry a load of valuable effects, and these prices advanced as the dangers increased, until fabulous figures were offered, often without avail. It was every man for himself and all for the ferry and escape. One man carried an aquarium of pet frogs into the street and seeing the flames and smoke rolling up on every side saw no chance of saving his pets and crushed the glass on the curb and mercifully crushed the frogs under his heel. A prominent and once wealthy Hebrew merchant, who had lost everything, took the boat for Oakland remarking, with characteristic optimism: "All I have left is this diamond and fifteen cents in my pocket. I will have to begin selling collar buttons all over again." A dealer in men's furnishings seeing that his stock could not be saved, called in the people from the street and told them to help themselves. Many went away with new hats and loaded with shirts, neckties and underwear. Many valuables could have been saved if people had believed the city was to burn as it did; but papers were left in desks, books in stores, no one believing the fire would not be checked, until it was too late.

Automobiles rushed up and down at lightning speed where streets were passable, their horns adding to the pandemonium and weird effects; teams, drays, hacks and every sort of conveyance clambered over bricks and debris. Fear was in every face, no one spoke or noticed his neighbor, each intent upon self-preservation and the salvage of his property. The wildest rumors were related with customary exaggeration, only to be more than verified in an hour, even beyond the imagination of the exaggerator. Men were reported shot down by the soldiers for disobedience and "looting." A tailor was said to have been shot for refusing to render required assistance when ordered. Subsequent investigation brings conflicting accounts. The soldier, who happens to a nephew of a former mayor of Sacramento, claims he shot in self-defense. Personal verification by an eye witness is abundant of many summary executions for stealing, the orders being to shoot and not arrest, as there were no prisons and no way to hold prisoners. How many such deaths actually occurred will never be known, as it seems to be the policy to suppress this sort of information.

After fire and danger lines were established I was frequently halted and turned back. I then sought the mayor and procured a permit to pass through the lines, which I now cherish as a memento. With this I encountered no further difficulty and went where I pleased, passing tottering walls and burning buildings and in many perilous places, but always with extreme caution and judgment. I thus saw more than a great many. I met one man who was regretting that the troops would not allow him to enter his office, which was not yet on fire and just across the street from where we stood. He said the funds of his lodge were in his desk and he only wanted to go in long enough to get them. I gave him my pass and he returned it in five minutes very much rejoiced. The lodge funds were saved. I think too much restriction was thus placed upon people desiring to save their property. Instances are numerous of this character.

One by one the great office buildings, hotels and business houses fell victims to the flames, which halted for neither brick or stone. By eleven o'clock the tall buildings, the tallest of the skyscrapers and supposed to be immune, was in flames and made one of the most spectacular scenes of that day of horrors. Twenty stories to its dome, it resembled a great chimney of fire, the flames belching from every window at once and roaring skyward from the dome. It seemed the flue to all this great conflagration. The seriousness and possibilities of the situation became more impressive with the destruction of this building and evidences of panic were seen. About four o'clock the Palace Hotel, the fame of San Francisco for nearly forty years, succumbed, and the destruction of all South of Market was complete. When this burned without crossing Market street the hope revived that Market on the south and Sansome on the East would mark the boundary of the burned area, but this was abandoned when dynamite brands set a wrecked building on fire between Montgomery and Kearney and Commercial and Clay, nearly a block ahead of the flames. It was then seen that Chinatown was doomed and Kearney and Montgomery must go, and predictions, then thought unreasonable panic, were plenty that nothing could save the entire city. At six o'clock the Fireman's Fund building, on the Southwest corner of Sansome and California, began to blaze from the roof, a small tongue of fire that a bucket of water would have extinguished, undoubtedly set by brands from the explosions of dynamite, and the fate of the Merchants Exchange was apparent. No water was to be had and though it was plain that this little blaze, no bigger than a man's hand, meant the doom of Montgomery street, no one moved or thought of attempting to extinguish it, though the buildings across the streets on each side were burned and gone. This will serve to indicate how entirely hopeless the situation really was. It soon swept the Merchants Exchange, Safe Deposit and Mills buildings, and Russ, Occidental and Lick hotels followed in one, two, three order, and thence on to the Union Trust and Crocker buildings, the stately guards on either side of the gateway from Market to Montgomery, the Wall street of San Francisco.

MAN DROWNED AT LAKE GILBERT

Ed. Gibbons, a Machinist Camping at Lake Gilbert was Drowned this Morning

THE BODY WAS RECOVERED

He and a Companion Tried to Swim to Shore but Gibbons
Went Down

Ed. Gibbons, a machinist whose home was in Wabash, Indiana, but who has been working in the shops here the past month or six weeks, was drowned in Lake Gilbert this morning about 7:30. In company with half a dozen companions he had been camping at the lake the past week or so. He and a companion started across an arm of the lake in one of Mr. Holmes steel boats and in some way it became capsized and filled. They left the boat and started to swim to the shore. When about eight feet from shore Gibbons threw up his hands and went down. His companion was about twenty feet behind him, but was unable to reach him before he went down the third time.

His companion immediately removed his clothes and dove several times but could not get hold of him.

Other members of the party at once came to town and notified the coroner and secured grappling hooks with which the body was recovered about 11 o'clock. Coroner Gibson went out and brought the body to D. M. Clark's undertaking rooms where it will be prepared for burial or shipment. The officers of the local Machinists' union at once notified his relatives by wire and until they are heard from no definite arrangements will be made for the funeral.

The deceased was about 24 years of age. His father is a railroad engineer running into Benton Harbor, Michigan, and he has sisters living in Wabash, Indiana, where the family lived before the death of his mother. He is also a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Items of Interest Regarding Railroads
and Railroad Employees

Engine No. 20 on the Minnesota & International came in with a badly skinned nose Monday. The train going north Saturday night struck a big tree which had been blown across the track by the storm. The log was broken in two and hurled from the track, the only damage to the train being the splintering of some of the bars to the pilot.

The work of straightening the Northern Pacific track between Lake Park and Moorhead, is of a magnitude hard to realize. The company is making a fill near Muskado that is seldom equaled. A trestle five miles long and from 30 to 60 feet high has been erected and practically the entire length of it is to be filled. A cut a mile and a half long and forty-five feet deep is also to be made and it will be made 500 feet wide in order to furnish sufficient dirt for the big fill. It is expected that the work will occupy about two years.

Asks for a Receiver for American Yeoman

Des Moines, July 21.—Attorneys for J. B. Gossage, of San Francisco, yesterday served notice of application in the district court for a receiver for the Brotherhood of American Yeoman, a fraternal insurance order covering many western states, with headquarters in Des Moines. They also served notice of suits for $150,000 which Gossage claims to be due him in damages for cancellation of his agents contract and for commissions on new members secured through his agency. The application for receiver is the outgrowth of factional trouble in the order which resulted in the ousting of the administration a little more than a year ago, and the installation of new officers. Gossage held his contract, a lucrative one, under the old management. 4211

May Manton Patterns.

Too much cannot be said about the popularity of these favorite patterns. Each day new names are added to our list; if you once use them you will always have your garments cut after a May Manton pattern.

Our leading dressmakers are using them extensively, this alone will assure you that they are all right. One states, "May Manton patterns for domestic patterns are the nearest in design and style according to the French plates that I have seen."

IOC is the price of each pattern.

No alteration necessary—a child can easily understand the directions, they are so very plain.

BOOK ILLUMINATION.

an Early Example of the Artistic Culture of the Ancients.

The underlying thought which has inspired illumination from its very beginning is more interesting even than the gorgeous pages which pass beyond our power of appreciation and defy our comprehension. To the ancients the most perfect art of all the world was the art of thought. The book was the tangible and visible expression of man's intellect, worthy of the noblest setting. Its covers might be made of tablets of beaten gold inlaid with precious jewels, its words might be written in minium of rare brilliancy brought from India or Spain or in Byzantine ink made from pure oriental gold upon parchment soft as velvet
made from the skins of still born kids, while upon the ample margins could be displayed miniatures and decorations portraying the highest skill of the great artists of the day.

The earliest example of illumination
is a papyrus in the Louvre in Paris, which contains paintings representing funeral ceremonies executed in bright colors, touched in its high lights with gold, of some magnificent volume or codex of colored vellum or some collection of miniatures or of some magnificent gift book decorated for prince or church, yet this simple, imperfect fragment at the Louvre is the sole tangible evidence we have that so obvious a form of artistic culture as the art of illumination was known to the long period of classical antiquity or to the later luxuries of the life of Athens and Corinth, of Pergamum and Ephesus, of Cyzicus or Rhodes, Syracuse or Tarentum, of Sybaris, of Pompeii and of Rome.

With the invention of printing the demand for the illuminator and the scribe became gradually less, and finally by the end of the sixteenth century illumination ceased to be an art. The book as the developer of the people in science and literature and in learning generally had crowded out the book as an object of art. It need not have done this, perhaps, but as a matter of fact it did.—Boston Transcript.

APPROVES THE PLANS

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT GOES
OVER THOSE OF CONGRES-SIONAL COMMITTEE.

THE REPUBLICAN TEXT BOOK

ASSERTED IT WILL BE A STAND
PAT DOCUMENT FROM BE-GINNING TO THE END.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 24.—President Roosevelt has reviewed the campaign plans of the Republican congressional committee and pronounced them good and entirely to his liking.
He entertained at luncheon at Saga-
more Hill, Speaker Cannon, Chairman Sherman of the congressional committee, Representatives Loudenslager of New Jersey and McKinley of Illinois, respectively secretary and treasurer of the committee, and Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania.

Secretary Loeb after the conference made the following statement for the president:

"The plans of the congressional committee were gone over and the president expressed himself as being in entire accord with the plans of the committee."

Speaker Cannon's expression was this:

"I was a guest of the president and as such it would hardly be seemly for me to discuss what took place. I would like to state that the conference was extremely satisfactory and the congressional campaign situation not bad."

Valuable Asset to the Committee.

Chairman Sherman said the president's keen interest is a valuable asset to the committee. He said the headquarters of the committee would be opened in New York in the St. James building Wednesday and there after the campaign work would go on continuously.

Mr. Sherman is to give his entire time to the direction of affairs from New York.

Secretary Loudenslager will also devote his attention to the New York
headquarters, as will Treasurer Mc-Kinley of Illinois.

Mr. Sherman added that the speakers so far selected included Secretary Taft, Secretary Shaw, Speaker Cannon, Senator Beveridge and several other senators, as well as practically the entire Republican membership of the house of representatives. While no one would speak under quotation regarding the tariff it was learned that the Republican text book which is to be issued within two or three weeks will be a stand pat document from beginning to end and that this will be the tenor of Republican speeches in Massachusetts, Iowa, Wisconsin and other "idea" infected sections of the country as well as in other places. The stand pat announcement will, of course, be accompanied by the statement that when the tariff is revised it must be revised by its friends.

FORGERY DISCOVERED.

False Certificate for Fifty Shares of Union Pacific Common Stock.

New York, July 24.—Discovery of a forged certificate for fifty shares of common stock on the Union Pacific railway has been announced by George W. Ely, secretary of the stock exchange. According to Secretary Ely, the certificate is numbered 9568 and is dated Sept. 15, 1905. It is in the name of Marvin J. Hanna, bearing what purports to be the signatures of E. H. Harriman and Alexander Millar, without official title and the seal of the Union Pacific company.

Mr. Ely said it was not known whether there were any other forged certificates in circulation. The price of Union Pacific common stock is $147.25 a share.

REGAINS CONSCIOUSNESS.

But Frank Kern Is Unable to Tell of Assault.

Kansas City, Mo., July 24.—Frank Kern, who with Bertha Bowlin, since dead, was murderously assaulted on the Kersey Coates Terrace drive, last Saturday night, has regained consciousness, but is unable to give an intelligible statement of the affair.
Kern did not realize that any time had elapsed since he was assaulted. When asked if he had seen Crone, Miss Bow-lin's former sweetheart, Kern replied that he had "seen Crone tonight," a few blocks from the scene of the assault and that Crone was carrying a club.

Harvard and Cambridge Match.

Boston, July 24.—The Harvard university crew, which defeated Yale at New London last month, will sail for England next Friday and on Saturday, Sept. 1, will row a race with the Cambridge university eight, which beat Oxford last spring. The race will be rowed over the regular Cambridge course.

One Killed and Two Injured.

Decatur, Ill., July 24.—R. C. Wilson of Mattoon was killed and Nellie Orland was fatally injured and Miss Belle Matthews was dangerously hurt when a buggy in which they were riding was struck by an Illinois Central freight engine near here.

REQUEST FOR INTERVENTION.

Americans on the Isle of Pines Petition President Roosevelt.

Havana, July 24.—A committee of American residents of the Isle of Pines has forwarded to President Roosevelt a request for the intervention of the American government in the case of L. C. Giltner, postmaster of the town of Columbia; William Augustine and Miss Millie Brown, nineteen years of age, all Americans, asserting that although the persons named had committed no crime they were unjustly and practically without trial sentenced to fine or imprisonment. Up to the present time, Miss Brown has been confined in the common jail, notwithstanding the promise of the Cuban government that she should be removed to the home of the mayor.

Lake Steamer Sinks.

Detroit, July 24.—The steamer William Chase of Detroit, owned by the Detroit Gas and Coke company, foundered in Lake Erie during Sunday night's storm and sank in 250 feet of water off Colchester. The Chase was towing the barges Pomeroy and Sag-naw. The crew of the Chase was re-cued by the Pomeroy after a narrow escape from drowning.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

President Roosevelt will review
the Atlantic fleet on Sept. 3 at Oyster Bay.

By order of the president the provisions of the eight-hour law have been extended to the navy department.

The sixty-seventh annual convention of the College Fraternity of Beta Theta Pi opened at the Albany hotel
in Denver Monday.

Impressive memorial services were held at Simla Monday in honor of Lady Curzon, wife of the former governor general of India.

Joe Gans of Baltimore was given the decision over Dave Holly of Philadelphia Monday night at the end of a twenty round bout at Seattle.

Harry Baker, the amateur featherweight champion of America, has been matched to fight Frankie Neill twenty rounds at Los Angeles on Aug. 7 at catch weights.

Strike Declared Off.

New York, July 24.—The strike of the Housewives and Structural Ironworkers' union, inaugurated seven months ago against the American Bridge company and the firm of Post & McCord, was declared off at a mass meeting of the union. The men will return to work at once.

ORIGIN OF NEW YORK NAMES

New Dorp Replaced a Town Thrice
Destroyed by Fire.

There are some names of places in Greater New York common enough on the modern tongue, but the origin of which is not so generally known. New Dorp, on Staten Island, was so named by the Dutch to distinguish it from Oude Dorp (Old Dorp), the first Dutch settlement on the island, which was thrice destroyed by the Indians. Old Dorp stood to the northwest of Fort Wadsworth, about where Arrochar now stands. Two miles to the west of the ruins of Old Dorp the persistent Dutch built their New Dorp.

The northeast section of Staten Island, which until the formation of Greater New York was known as Castleton, and is still generally so called,
takes its name from the fact that it once formed Governor Dongan's "manor of Castleton." Dongan, the Dongan hills are named from him—was of the family of the Earl of Limerick, and the seat of the earl in Ireland was Castleton, in the County Kildare. Many of Governor Dongan's descendants still live on Staten Island, some of them occupying and owning houses on the land of the old manor. At first Governor Dongan merely had a hunting lodge on Staten Island, and it is significant of the state of that portion of New York city at the end of the seventeenth century that at a meeting of the colonial council the governor was entered on the minutes as "absent, being engaged at his hunting lodge on Staten Island killing bears."

Bedlow's island, on which the statue of Liberty stands, was purchased in 1716 by an Englishman named Bedlow, who had amassed a large fortune in the East India trade and was an acquaintance of the then governor, the notorious Lord Cornbury. Bedlow received from Cornbury the privilege of victualling the British fleets which frequented
New York. It was a most profitable monopoly, having in it great possibilities of graft. Cornbury is supposed to have "stood in" with Bedlow. When Bedlow died suddenly Cornbury seized all his papers, collected all the outstanding debts due the contractor, and kept everything of Bedlow's he could lay his hands on, leaving Bedlow's widow and children in poverty. Bedlow's island was bought and used by the contractor while he victualled the fleets as a depot for his stores.

Corlear's Hook takes its name from Jacob Corlear, the city trumpeter in the old Dutch days. Governor Beekman bought it from him. The governor also bought a country estate, the site of which is commemorated by Beekman street.

The true meaning of the word Manhattan, originally spelled variously as Manahatta, Manhattoes and Manhattan, is hid in mystery. It is not even certain whether it was the name of the place or of the tribe which inhabited it, or of both. The old idea that the word meant Place of Drunkenness has been satisfactorily confuted, but what does the word mean?—New York Press.

Jes' Plain Torpedoes.

The good old Fourth's a-comin'—the best day in the year—
And little chaps get anxious-like when once it's drawin' near.
They talk of firecrackers, and they dream
about the noise.
The dear old Fourth was certainly Jes'
made for little boys.
Bill's got a great big cannon, with fuse
you have to light,
And lots of great big crackers that's filled with dynamite,
But I'm a little feller—ain't half as old as he—
And I guess that plain torpedoes will have to do for me.

Pa says that giant crackers ain't fit fer
little chaps;
He's sore on all toy pistols and hates
these paper caps.
He don't intend his children shall ever celebrate
By blowin' off their fingers; he says they'll have to wait.

"You're nothin' but a baby," my father
says, "as yet,
And your daddy can't quite spare you; he needs you bad, you bet!
Bill's got some giant crackers? Well, that I know is true,
But I guess that plain torpedoes will have to do for you."

It's hard to have big brothers and watch
them at their play
And Jes' to be a little chap and sort o' in the way;
To have folks always tell you you can't do thus and so Because you're Jes' a little chap not old enough, you know.
But ma she sees I'm tearful, so she takes me in her lap
And says: "Why, what's the matter?
You're cryin', little chap!"
Then as she bends to kiss me I'm brave
as I can be—
I guess that plain torpedoes are good enough for me.

Companion For July.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
